The Massachusetts Historical Commission (MHC) has converted this paper record to digital format as part of ongoing projects to scan records of the Inventory of Historic Assets of the Commonwealth and National Register of Historic Places nominations for Massachusetts. Efforts are ongoing and not all inventory or National Register records related to this resource may be available in digital format at this time.

The MACRIS database and scanned files are highly dynamic; new information is added daily and both database records and related scanned files may be updated as new information is incorporated into MHC files. Users should note that there may be a considerable lag time between the receipt of new or updated records by MHC and the appearance of related information in MACRIS. Users should also note that not all source materials for the MACRIS database are made available as scanned images. Users may consult the records, files and maps available in MHC's public research area at its offices at the State Archives Building, 220 Morrissey Boulevard, Boston, open M-F, 9-5.

Users of this digital material acknowledge that they have read and understood the MACRIS Information and Disclaimer (<http://mhc-macris.net/macrisdisclaimer.htm>)

ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION

☐ see continuation sheet

Describe architectural features. Evaluate the characteristics of this building in terms of other buildings within the community.

This simple side gabled farmhouse is oriented to the south thus perpendicular to Middle Road. The one and one-half story dwelling is three bays wide with two windows in the gable peak and five bays deep and has a wrap porch across the gable end elevation facing Middle Road and wrapping to the south facade. The house has Greek Revival trim including the gable end rake, boxed cornice and returns and narrow corner boards. The porch, which is partially enclosed on the northwest corner, recently has been replaced with the square columns and plain modern balustrade. The south facade has been remodeled with a plain paneled reproduction entrance door, a modern projecting oriel or bay, another entrance, and a single eight-over-eight window. A small open entrance porch has been added at the secondary entrance on this south facade. The shed roof dormer on the south roof slop has three small two-over-two windows. The chimney is centered at the ridge. The new porch replaces a late nineteenth century Italianate porch that had cut posts, brackets and a decorative cut balustrade with entrance steps and opening at the southwest corner of the street gable front elevation.

HISTORICAL NARRATIVE

☐ see continuation sheet

Discuss the history of the building. Explain its associations with local (or state) history. Include uses of the building, and the role(s) the owners/occupants played within the community.

Located on a rural route connecting the Village of Southborough with Southville and a route which until the 1840s was one of the main north-south corridors, this property appears to be on the 1830 map and the only property south of Turnpike Road and the location of Middle Road that today dead ends into Parkerville Road, which does not appear on the 1831 map. During the second half of the nineteenth century this thirteen-acre farm was among the smaller farms and probably was associated with the shoe shop located across Middle Road. Only about 16% of the 117 farms recorded in the 1850 agricultural census were less than 20 acres. First known owner "Mrs. B. Flagg" likely refers to Betsey Flagg who was assessed for $600 worth of real estate in 1860 and was the mother of the 1870 map owner, George W. Flagg (b. 1844). Flagg's father, Leland had died in 1845 at age 42. Probably this house had been the Flaggs' home prior to Leland Flagg's (1803-1845) death. Other Flaggs owned farms north of this at 123 Middle Road and on Turnpike Road since demolished. In 1870 George W. Flagg was assessed for a thirteen acre farm with a house, barn and shoe shop. The 1857 map shows a shoe shop across the road from this house where today there is a deep stone foundation (MHC #938) for a barn or shop building and the total real estate assessment is approximately the same as the 1860 figure which is consistent with records for many other known properties. By the late 1890s until after 1909 this property was owned by Mary Sullivan who retained the thirteen-acre farm with house, barn and shop as well as a horse and cow. Further investigation is necessary to know the pre-1850 history of this property as well as the agricultural and pre-industrial history. The foundation on the opposite side of the road may yield additional information as well as the artifacts on the bank of the stream, near the barn/shop foundation on the opposite side of the street.
